Annual Members and Friends Gathering!

Saturday, February 1, 5:30-8:30 pm
Mt. Sequoyah Retreat Center, Dining Hall

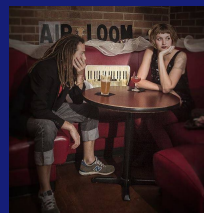

Acting in the Present...Working Toward the Future...Together
Music is at the core...

Local peace musicians working toward a beautiful future

Don't Stop Please

Just a sweet sample... 2 band members joining us for an exciting taste of what they have to offer

Air Loom

Air Loom is Dana Idlet and Jackson Jennings. They're already attracting a following with a rowdy mix of tunes

Papa Rap

Interactive.... nonstop fun...
Cuban/American/International music.

Annual Meeting also features the traditional lasagna dinner with the fixings, a chance to see your peace friends, OMNI programs that have tables for information, and music from these terrific local musicians. Always fun. REALLY fun!

Also your chance to support OMNI, while you have a blast. $10 suggested donation, kids under 5 free, nobody turned away.

Mt Sequoyah Retreat Center, 150 N. Skyline Dr., Fayetteville

Climate Change Book Forum

Sunday Feb 2 - 1:30 pm, Fay Public Library Walker Room.

This month's book is "The Plundered Planet" by Paul Collier. The economics of managing global resources for climate stability. This is a controversial book taking a position from more traditional economics, that should generate some excellent conversation. Discussion facilitated by Phil Zimmerman

If you wish to read the book, OMNI still has one copy to loan. Contact the office at 479-935-4422.
