Climate Change: Escaping the Roundabout

Sunday April 13

Energy: Overdevelopment and the Illusion of Endless Growth

Panel of presenters on energy
Climate Change Book Forum 1:30 OMNI Center

The more climate deniers are proven wrong, the louder they cry that we just need to drive around the circle one more time. Join the folks looking for real answers to the dilemmas facing us in this challenging time.

UA researcher Dr. Song Feng was excellent last week. Energy issues are key to finding ways to escape the trap we're in. This book will open up discussion to move us forward. Facilitated by Lolly Tindol, Elana Harrison and Shelley Buonaiuto presenting.

This Sunday we're making up for the extreme weather with the Forum that would have occurred in January. Next month we are scheduled to return to Fayetteville Public Library on the first Sunday of the month. February book will be "The Plundered Planet" facilitated by Phil Zimmerman.
