Nuba Mountains Relief Fundraiser

Saturday Sept 6 -- 7:00 pm

Nuba children hide in mountain caves to escape the bombings

Sat Sept 6 -- 7:00-9:00 pm –OMNI Center

Desperate Needs in the NUBA MOUNTAINS OF SUDAN

Sam Totten's story: For three years the civilians of the Nuba Mountains in Sudan have been under attack by the Government of Sudan. The bombings have killed many and the lack of food has resulted in severe malnutrition to outright starvation. Sudanese President Omar al Bashir has been charged with genocide for the atrocities, but the complexities of international law let him continue his reign of terror.

At this fundraiser Sam Totten will tell the story of his decades-long work with genocide survivors, especially those in the Nubas. Sam will personally take your caring donation, and bring food and hope to refugees devastated by years of violent attack. Please come and donate generously.

OMNI Center: 3274 No. Lee Ave Fayetteville

Toward Collective Liberation

THURSDAY SEPT 11 - 5:30 pm

Toward Collective Liberation
author Chris Crass

Presented by

UA Gender Studies Department -
5:30-7:30, 105 Kimpel Hall

Throughout history everyday people have come together to take on the most pressing challenges of their time and through collective organizing and struggle they have envisioned a better world, made large scale changes, won important victories, and passed on lessons to the next generation. This book, "Toward Collective Liberation: Anti-Racist Organizing, Feminist Praxis, and Movement Building Strategy", tells the story well.

Author Chris Crass has worked in the trenches of social change organizing for many years and weaves an analysis that opens doors of understanding for people ready to see change happen. Don't miss this talk.
