Climate Change Book Forum
Sunday Sept 7 - 1:30 pm - Fay Library

This month discussing the book
"Cows Save The Planet"

The Book Forum is on its 3rd year of readings. We're committed to expanding our understanding of climate change, and would love it if you'd come join us. Your perspective will enrich the discussion. You need not have read the book to appreciate the conversation.

Civil Rights Roundtable

Monday Sept 8, 6:00 pm @ OMNI Center

It's exciting! Now that Fayetteville has an anti-discrimination ordinance, what's the best way to utilize it? Join us Monday night to start the discussion.

6:00 dinner donated by Slim Chickens, meeting begins at 6:30.

Toward Collective Liberation
THURSDAY SEPT 11 - 5:30 pm

Toward Collective Liberation author Chris Crass

Presented by
UA Gender Studies Department
- 5:30-7:30, 105 Kimpel Hall

Throughout history everyday people have come together to take on the most pressing challenges of their time and through collective organizing and struggle they have envisioned a better world, made large scale changes, won important victories, and passed on lessons to the next generation. This book, "Toward Collective Liberation: Anti-Racist Organizing, Feminist Praxis, and Movement Building Strategy", tells the story well.

Author Chris Crass has worked in the trenches of social change organizing for many years and weaves an analysis that opens doors of understanding for people ready to see change happen. Don't miss this talk.
