Solidarity March with Ferguson
Saturday Oct 25 - 9:00 am - 12:00 noon

Solidarity March

Join the Civil Rights Roundtable to support human rights for every human being! You can be a partner to protect human rights for ALL.

March begins at UA, corner of Dickson and Arkansas, walks down Dickson Street to St. Paul's Church for speakers. Then we'll deploy ourselves along College Avenue so people can see how much support there is for human rights in this city.

Speakers include Sgt. Jamie Fields of the Fayetteville Police Department, and others. See the program here.

Fayetteville is proud of its police department, and we've come to expect our police to be respectful of citizens. Some cities and counties are not as fortunate as we are. Leadership from the Fayetteville and University of Arkansas Police Departments will speak at this event.

Sponsored by the Civil Rights Roundtable.

Collective Liberation Book Study
Saturday Oct 25 - 1:00 pm @ OMNI

Examining the book by Chris Crass. This time is a bit later than we said at the last meeting. Moved to 1:00 pm to accommodate the Solidarity March.

You need not have read the book to enjoy the discussion.
