Fayetteville For Ferguson No Indictment Response

Tuesday Nov 25 - 12:00-2:00

Corner of College and Dickson

A profoundly terrible event has been made worse by refusal to hold perpetrators accountable.

Protesters will gather in front of the Washington County Courthouse to register our support for right to life and dignity for all people, and insistence that police be held accountable for their conduct. You are invited to attend.

Bring posters that reflect the message that "ALL LIVES MATTER."

Four courageous and trained protesters will risk arrest at this event. Michael Brown was shot for walking in the road, and they will be blocking College Avenue for a period of time to point out that freedom and democracy can't survive in a police state. We may be inconvenienced for a few minutes on the road, but all across the country mothers are weeping for children who have died needlessly, by the hands of a police structure that grants immunity for the death of black children, and turns a blind eye to the horrendous pain it causes.

The Civil Rights Roundtable has been working with the Fayetteville Police Department to make this a respectful and effective statement. We want to thank them for their professionalism and cooperation. We're not perfect, but if Ferguson were lucky enough to have our police force things would be different.

What is happening right now is shocking, but the anger exploding is coming from long hurt that has been exacerbated by the foolish responses from decision makers in Missouri. Let those who believe in freedom never be afraid to defend human rights.

A good article in the Fayetteville Free Zone explains this well <http://fayettevillefreezone.com/arrested-in-fayetteville-for-ferguson-your-help-will-be-needed/>
