EARLY VOTING OPENS TODAY! Vote AGAINST! Don't let civil rights in Fayetteville be repealed!

Let's come together, stand up and say NO to discrimination for all the hard working people of Fayetteville.

Early voting is at the Washington County Courthouse every weekday during business hours

Keep Fay Fair has yard signs. If you want a sign go by the office and pick it up ASAP.

112 W.
Center Street, #210
EJ Ball Building

Take friends and go vote, OMNI folks. Early voting begins now through Dec 9.

Justice is our issue. We can't let it be snatched from our hands

Fayetteville For Ferguson No Indictment Response

Tuesday Nov 25 - 12:00-2:00
Corner of College and Dickson

Four brave Arrestees made a huge statement last week, that the system has to stop and pay attention to the terrible human rights issues our nation has created by militarizing our police forces. Will you help them with legal costs? Jared Carter, David Garcia, Jane Stitt, and Nik Robbins are The Fayetteville Four.

The legal defense fund is accepting donations for bail and fines. Great local attorney Tim Snively has volunteered to defend the Four. Donate at our webpage at www.omnicenter.org. Use the regular donation button, and be sure to look for the line on the bottom of the donation form to put notes. Say "legal fund" in the notes, please.

What is happening right now is shocking, but the anger exploding is coming from long hurt that has been exacerbated by the foolish responses from decision makers in Missouri. Let those who believe in freedom never be afraid to defend human rights.

A good article in the Fayetteville Free Zone explains this well
