

Hiroshima Nagasaki on Sunday is big

Beyond the shadow of a doubt ...

Shadows that still haunt us...

Program for Sunday includes some wonderful performers and speakers. Kelly and Donna of Still on the Hill are perennial local favorites, and Dan Dean will join us again for the first time since his accident. Burnetta Hinterthur will share some throbbing poetry, and Bill Williams speaks about the value of remembrance. In addition, Marshallese Consul General Carmen Chong Gum will talk about the amazing legal case her tiny country has mounted against global nuclear powers. Incredibly brave!

Recycling in Fayetteville: Is the Koch Brothers stream the best option?

Thursday August 13th
6:30-7:30

Fayetteville Public Library Walker Room

OMNI will sponsor an educational meeting at the Fayetteville Public Library so you can get the information necessary to ask questions of your city council members regarding single stream recycling. The session will begin and end on time, so you might want to arrive a few minutes early to browse through the displays and educational materials.

Volunteer Appreciation

Big thanks, hugs, and gratitude going out to Steve Skattebo for his dedicated work in helping us with the lawn and garden at the Omni Center. Steve also found us an in-kind donation of a working lawn mower. We greatly appreciate you!!!!

Omni is looking for a volunteer who can oversee lawn and garden maintenance and a small crew of volunteers. Please contact DeLani Bartlette, 479-225-0048, d.r.bartlette@gmail.com
