Changes in WE Connection starting this Sunday

This Sunday for
WE Connection

January 12, 3:00 pm
at OMNI

WE has been meeting since 2010, and many strong and important friendships have emerged over the time we've met. That's what the "connection" part is about, isn't it?

Over that past year the energy has waned, and it seems like a good time to shift gears and move in a different direction.

Beginning this Sunday - Jan 12 - OMNI women are invited to check out a new format that is meant to help create a women's support group. As women are taking our places of leadership in the world, it is important to have safe places to be women together and support each other. Our culture doesn't give us many tools for doing that, but there are good tools. We just need to know them. This group intends to work on that very problem.

In the future, the date for the Women's Support Group may change as the group decides what works best, but this Sunday please join us! You will feel welcome!
