Omni News and Current Events featured on Short Takes:
Presented by Cliff Hughes, Dick Bennett
OMNI at the University of Arkansas for Peace, Justice and Ecology is hosting activist Medea Benjamin on Thursday, May 17, 2007. She had been scheduled to speak two weeks prior, but an invitation to meet personally with Hugo Chavez delayed her visit.

Medea Benjamin will speak on “Building a Global Movement for Peace and Justice” in Giffels Auditorium. A book signing will follow. She will also teach a workshop on non-violent civil disobedience at 8pm in the Student Union’s bridge, also known as the Connections Lounge. Both events are free and open to the public.

Medea Benjamin was nominated as one of 1,000 exceptional women from around the world to receive the Nobel Peace Prize. She is the co-founder of CODEPINK: Women for Peace, a women’s group pushing for a reorientation of budget priorities in the US to focus on health care, education, and housing. She is also Founding Director of Global Exchange, and has written several books, including most recently “Stop the Next War Now” which will be available for purchase at the book signing following the 5:30pm speech. For more information call 479-495-1316.

-- May 17, 1954 - The United States Supreme Court rejected segregation and the separate but equal doctrine.

-- May 20, Sunday 6:30p.m., HOWL (Her Words Out Loud), at Nightbird Books, 557 S. School, #103, Fayetteville. - HOWL: Women’s Open Mic happens the third Sunday of each month at Nightbird Bookstore. At HOWL, women are invited to read poems (their own or another woman writer’s), share short prose or sing at an open mic forum hosted by Mendy Knott. So come read, sing or play your work to a really receptive audience. It’s a great place to “try out” new work, shares your masterpieces, or read for the very first time. Men and women are warmly invited to attend this celebration of women’s words. Nightbird Books is located in the old mill buildings at the corner of School and 6th ST. Their phone number is 443-2080. Reading starts at 6:30 but come early to sign up to read, browse the books and enjoy the good company. For HOWL questions or to join our mailing list, email howl@herwords.org. --June 3, Sunday, 11:00a.m.-3:00p.m. Fayetteville Peace Gardens Tour - The Fayetteville Peace Gardens Tour was created to promote spaces dedicated to deepening reflection about peace and justice, and to environmental stewardship--secure places for species habitat--.
connecting communities and species into a world peace network. As the development of public, community peace gardens is a sign of civic maturity, the development of private peace gardens signifies the coming of age for an individual, reflecting the longing for world peace, social justice, and environmental stewardship.

This self-guided tour will showcase private gardens dedicated to peace. They are part of OMNI's Peace Gardens Network of twenty gardens in Fayetteville, and others in northwest Arkansas. Tickets for the tour can be purchased in advance by sending your check for $10 to OMNI, 2103 Loren Circle, Fayetteville, AR 72701, or at any of the gardens on the day of the event. Visitors to the gardens will spend the day enjoying beautiful private gardens featuring diverse landscapes and design ideas for sun and shade. Each of the gardens has a unique personality. (See Dick Bennett's "A Philosophy of Peace Places" below)

--June 14, Thursday, 6:30 - 8:00 pm, "Free Consumer Conservation Class: "More in the Bank, Less From the Environment" - This mini-workshop to be held at the Washington County Cooperative Extension

2536 North McConnell Ave (east of the county fair grounds) will explore how to reduce your personal environmental impact, save money and increase personal satisfaction. Participants of Nurtured World’s innovative workshops report an average cost savings of $1,600 per year and an average carbon dioxide footprint reduction of 1.6 tons, as well as other environmental and personal benefits.

The interactive workshop will include a discussion of the relative impacts of consumer versus industrial activities, the types of consumer activities that have the largest impact on the environment, and personal action case studies. Approaches for effectively addressing personal environmental impacts will be explored, including how personal satisfaction, environmental impact, and finances are related. Attendees will have an opportunity to explore how daily activities and our relationship with money affect the environment and how our personal goals can be met more effectively with lower negative environmental impacts.

Case studies of successful personal environmental behavior change, including sustainable food choices, green building, and a multitude of additional personal choices will be presented along with results from Nurtured World’s workshops conducted at venues such as Heifer International, The Arkansas Department of Environmental Quality, Intel, the National Guard, The City of Dallas, and numerous other organizations.

Registration is free, but required for material preparation. Please send your name and number of attendees to touei@bmswd.com or call 479-846-4601 to register by Friday June 8th.

Sponsored by the Boston Mountain Solid Waste District.

OMNI NEEDS VOLUNTEERS TO STAFF TABLE AT FARMER'S MARKET
Want to volunteer to help Omni, but you're limited on time. If you have an hour or two to donate on a Saturday morning, Omni needs you. We have an information table set up at Farmer's Market every Saturday morning throughout the summer and fall. People stop by to sign petitions, pick up free information sheets, buy buttons or bumper stickers, or, sometimes, just to visit. This is a great way to offer some time to Omni's mission for a culture of peace in an earth restored. It's also fun to be in the social hub of Fayetteville on a Saturday morning. If you'd like to spend an hour or two staffing the Omni Table, please contact Melanie Dietzel 442-8600 or melaniedietzel@cox.net

A PHILOSOPHY OF PEACE PLACES BY DICK BENNETT

UNITY OF LAND, SPECIES, GARDENS, AND POLITICS
Belief in both personal and social restoration from association with naturalness is hundreds of years old. William Wordsworth, for example, found in his English Lake District, its flowers and paths, its mountains and vistas, resources for reconstituting spiritual and political life.

Perhaps the need for relationship with the natural outdoors, is even stronger today, as we experience not only the pressures of urban living and the increasing elimination of plants and animals through the destruction of their habitats, but also as we contemplate the destruction of life itself. I am reminded of something Robert Jay Lifton wrote in an essay entitled "A Nuclear Age Ethos." "We face a new dimension of destruction," he wrote, "of an end." In response, Lifton commits himself and invites us to the "collective human power on behalf of human survival."

We would today enlarge that commitment to include the survival of all species, and to human, humane relationship with other species. We would not numb ourselves either to the dangers of our world or to its destruction, we would not use gardens to escape, but we would turn for peace to beauty and love in response to this destruction, by engaging and appreciating and defending the lives—the life—of the earth in our own yards.

In 2006 and 2007 our awareness of the dangers and the need for our commitment have increased with our knowledge of the rapid onslaught of global warming. With these gardens we provide our own personal shield against warming, which connects us with gardeners throughout the world, who are calling upon the leaders of the world to provide wise leadership. Let us hope they have experienced a Peace Garden, and have a Peace Garden, where that wisdom can grow.

OFF THE WALL TO PLAY AT THE FAYETTEVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY'S THURSDAY HAPPY HOUR
The eclectic local band, Off-the-Wall, will be making music at the Fayetteville Public Library on Thursday May 17, from 4-6 p.m. by the Arsaga's coffeehouse, exchanging lots of tasty tunes for some scrumptious scones and capuccinos.

The Off the Wall Band are Johnny Ray, Carolyn Swaney, Jeremy Hess, David Schoen, and Marc Quigley. They will share some original songs, some cover songs, and some surprises!

OMNI SEeks STORIES ABOUT PEACEMAKERS
Do you have a story about a peacemaker in Northwest Arkansas that you'd like to share? OMNI Center wants to publish your story. For more information visit www.omnicenter.org

OMNI'S 24TH BIBLIOGRAPHY OF BOOKS AND FILMS

Omni Center's 24th Bibliography of Books and Films may be found in OMNI's Web Site. Go to www.omnicenter.org and click on the Biblio icon. These bibliographies together assure us a knowledge base for our nonviolent peace, justice, and ecology work. We have given thought to our actions. Go there for books on such subjects as activism, African women, Al Jazeera, animal protection. Entries are cross-referenced: Abu-Ghraib (Bush, Civil Liberties, Imperialism, Torture, War), Advertising (Information Control, Commercialism, Media), Afghanistan (Bush, Empire, Iraq, Terrorism), Affirmative Action (Civil Rights, Equity, Women).

OMNI MULLINS LIBRARY PEACE BOOK AND FILM COLLECTION

The endowed collection is composed of four subject areas: VICTIMS, NONVIOLENCE, INVESTIGATIVE REPORTING, WHISTLEBLOWING. Rationale: In a world in which the value of victory over others too often predominates--militarists, imperialists, dominionists, bigots-- these books and films foreground the value of caring for the victims of economic, military, and religious depredations.

Nonviolence is a chief value underlying the protection and rescue of the victims of the world. In the word "Satyagraha," the name Gandhi gave to a way of overcoming injustice, "satya" means the search for truth and "agraha" means persistence. Inseparable from Satyagraha is "Ahimsa": that is, "a-himsa" (hims: desiring to kill): the effort to avoid killing until the desire to kill has been replaced by love for others and justice.

The "search for" and the "effort to" remind us of Gandhi's lifelong "experiments with truth." Investigative journalists and whistleblowers are two kinds of people who assist us in our search for truth. Working outside centers of power, these journalists are dedicated to the persistent exposure of corruption and discovery of truth, always the essential initial step toward justice.

Working inside governments and corporations, whistleblowers take great economic and even life-threatening risks to expose wrongdoing and return truth and honesty to ruling enterprises.

Thanks to Molly Boyd, Mullins has a news rotator item about the "Peace" collection. You can see it at http://libinfo.uark.edu/. You may have to click the reload button on your browser several times to get it to come up. Or, you can view it directly through the feeds at http://libinfo.uark.edu/info/whatsnew.asp. NATIONAL

REP. JOHN BOOZMAN VOTES AGAINST THE LOCAL LAW ENFORCEMENT HATE CRIMES PREVENTION ACT.
237 VOTES AGAINST HATE. REP. BOOZMAN WAS NOT ONE OF THEM.

Last week's House hate crimes vote was no easy victory. Rep. Boozman voted against the Local Law Enforcement Hate Crimes Prevention Act, which passed by a strong vote of 237 to 180. Human Rights Campaign supporters helped inundate Congress with more than 80,000 calls and e-mails to Representatives.

Despite the vote count, this was a close one. On Thursday morning, hours before the vote, Judy Shepard, mother of Matthew Shepherd, who was brutally murdered October 12, 1998, addressed a group of Representatives, speaking to them of the personal pain of losing her son, and making it clear once again just why we need this law. A handful of those Representatives walked into that meeting not knowing how they would vote. Then they listened to Judy and to David O'Malley, the Laramie, Wyoming sheriff who was the lead investigator in the Matthew Shepard case, and whose political views were deeply changed by the experience. That meeting made several Representatives realize they had a moral obligation to vote in support of the bill. And a few hours later, after beating back a last-ditch attempt to kill the bill with a "poison pill" amendment, the bill passed.

Opposition from anti-gay groups will intensify as this bill moves to the Senate as the Matthew Shepard Act, championed by Senators Kennedy (D-MA) and Smith (R-OR). The bill's detractors know their support is slim - 73% of Americans support this legislation - so they'll continue promoting lies and fear to prevent the bill's passage.

OPPORTUNITIES TO BE A DELEGATE ON A CHRISTIAN PEACEMAKING TEAM

Delegations are a primary way to become involved in the work of CPT. Christian Peacemaker Teams sends short-term (7-14 day) peacemaker delegations into crisis settings around the world. These delegations link communities experiencing violence with concerned individuals, churches and groups. Delegations offer participants a first-hand experience of CPT's on-the-ground experiment in faith-based, active peacemaking grounded in the transforming power of Gospel nonviolence.

Delegations are open to all interested people and do not require specific nonviolence training -- just download an application below. Delegations are also the first step for those considering joining CPT's Corps and Reserve Corps of peacemakers ready to staff CPT's violence-reduction. For more information Contact:

RESPONSIBLE SHOPPER ALERTS SHOPPER ABOUT CORPORATE SOCIAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT

Responsible Shopper alerts the public about the social and environmental impact of major corporations, and provides opportunities for consumers and investors to vote with their dollars for change.

We focus our research on companies that are subjects of consumer and shareholder action campaigns, and that have significant influence in their industry. Changing these companies could lead to significant industry-wide reform. http://www.coopamerica.org/programs/rs/

JOIN A SUMMER DELEGATION TO ISRAEL/PALESTINE

From May 26 through June 9, American Friends Service Committee (AFSC) and the Interfaith Peace-Builders will lead a U.S. delegation to Israel/Palestine. By participating, you can gain a deeper understanding of the Israeli/Palestinian conflict as you meet courageous Israelis and Palestinians working for peace and justice, and witness the current realities of life in Israel and the occupied Palestinian territories.

Cost: $1,850 (not including airfare) Application deadline: April 23 For more information, please contact Adam Horowitz at (215) 241-7874 or ahorowitz@afsc.org for more information.

NONVIOLENT CHANGE SPRING ISSUE POSTED ON WEBSITE

The Spring issue of Nonviolent Change is now posted as a PDF file on their web site: http://www.nonviolentchangejournal.org/, along with back issues. A version in web pages will soon be posted, likely within two weeks. NCJ welcomes submissions of articles, commentary, reviews, news, media information and announcements relating to issues of inter and intra community peace. Please send all submissions to Steve Sachs at: ssachs@earthlink.net. The next deadline is August 8, for the fall issue.

WHAT WE’VE BEEN UP TO – HAPPENINGS THAT HAVE HAPPENED

RAPID RESPONDERS HAVE DYNAMIC MONTH OF LETTER WRITING

Larry Woodall reports an outstanding job of writing and publishing letters in April! Our group had a total of TWENTY TWO (22) letters to the editor published. Making contributions this month were:

Dick Bennett NoWest Ark Times April 1 07; Dick Bennett Ark Demo-Gazette April 1, 2007; Rod Greig The Morning News April 1, 2007; Maya Porter NWAT April 3 ’07; Larry Woodall NWAT April 4, 07;
There are so many good letters representing intelligent thoughts and insights that it would boggle my mind to attempt to reduce any of them to a few words.

PHOTOS FROM JOHN SEED’S VISIT AVAILABLE FOR VIEWING
Aubrey Shepherd reports that we now have photos from John Seed’s visit online at Flickr.com as well as a big batch from Earth Day at World Peace Wetlands Prairie, plus a few from Springfest. More Springfest photos will be up soon. http://flickr.com/photos/7295307@N02/

VISIT TO REP. JOHN BOOZMAN’S OFFICE
On May 11, Sarah and Casey Milford (and there four children), Marvin Hilton, Karen Idlet, and Dick Bennett visited with Rep. Boozman’s staff to promote Rep. Dennis Kucinich’s Department of Peace legislation. We also had an opportunity to discuss other issues. Four staff members spent an hour and a half with the visitors who brought pies and tea as part of the nationwide cordial demonstration for a “Peace of the Pie”.

The Omni representative had their ear for over an hour. At the end of the visit, our Department of Peace committee felt their was need to further educate Rep. Boozman’s staff about the Kuchinich campaign for a United States Department of Peace.
