Annual Members and Friends Gathering!

Saturday, February 1 -- 5:30-8:30 pm
Mt. Sequoyah Retreat Center, Dining Hall

The Feast Team

James Cohea is the food coordinator for the lasagna feast, this year.

He has help from a whole array of OMNI members and friends who provide the tasty treats we get to enjoy.

Salad and breads are all being donated by Ozark Natural Foods. Thank you ONF!

Lasagna bakers are donating very special yummies. Take a look at this generous bunch:
Karen Idlet
Kelly Bassemeier
Donna Stjerna
Mary Bess Mulhollan
Melody DeVere
Gladys Tiffany
Julie Thacker
Joe & Dawn Newman
Shelley Buonaiuto
James Cohea

And the cookie bakers:
Kelly Bassmeier
Shelley Buonaiuto
Fernando Garcia
Joe & Dawn Newman
Julie Thacker
Nan Yarnelle
Also grateful to Mount Sequoyah for hosting us at no charge. It's a very comfortable venue for this event. Bet you like it too.

Acting in the Present...Working Toward the Future...Together

Annual Meeting also features a chance to see your peace friends, OMNI programs that have tables for information, and music from terrific local musicians. Always fun. REALLY fun!

Also your chance to support OMNI, while you have a blast. $10 suggested donation, kids under 5 free, nobody turned away.

OMNI 350 Environmental Events

Citizens Climate Lobby monthly meeting

Saturday Feb 1 - 11:00 am, OMNI. Potluck lunch where you learn some outstanding tools and hear about some amazing people making real progress in a tough Congress. This is where you can find a place to make a real contribution yourself.

Regional Conference March 8... more info here: Info and Registration here

Climate Change Book Forum

Sunday Feb 2 - 1:30 pm, Fay Public Library Walker Room.

This month's book is "The Plundered Planet" by Paul Collier. The economics of managing global resources for climate stability. This is a controversial book taking a position from more traditional economics, that should generate some excellent conversation. Discussion facilitated by Phil Zimmerman

If you wish to read the book, OMNI still has one copy to loan. Contact the office at 479-935-4422.
