Shadows of Liberty
Saturday Oct 18 - 2:00 pm @ OMNI

Reveals the censorship - cover-ups - corporate control

Tracing the story of media manipulation through the years, Shadows of Liberty poses a crucial question: why have we let a handful of powerful corporations write the news? Media reform is urgent and freedom of the press is fundamental.

Followed by a panel that includes the publicist for this film. It'll be worth your time to see.

Solidarity March with Ferguson

Saturday Oct 25 - 9:00 am - 2:00 pm
Support human rights for every human being! You can be a partner to protect human rights for ALL.

This march begins at UA, corner of Dickson and Arkansas, walks down Dickson Street to St. Paul's Church for speakers, and moves to the Washington County Courthouse. We will deploy ourselves along College Avenue North so people can see how much support there is for human rights in this city.

Fayetteville is proud of its police department, and we expect our police to be respectful of citizens. Some cities and counties are not as fortunate as we are. Leadership from the Fayetteville and University of Arkansas Police Departments will speak at this event.

Sponsored by the Civil Rights Roundtable.
