Sunday Equality Rally
Sunday Dec 21 - 1:00 pm
123 W. Mountain St., Fayetteville on the sidewalk

Grief is for yesterday. Celebrating is for today. This weekend is to acknowledge that.

Today we hold an equality rally for everyone... because this is not a one-group issue.

Every human deserves a safe and good life, with family, friends, home, and work they can be part of. To walk down the street confident they are safe. To trust that their public servants have their well-being at heart. That their employers will respect their dignity. That their landlords will treat them fairly. To be part of a community of compassion no matter their gender, race, culture, language or sexual orientation.

To transcend discrimination is the next great hurdle toward a culture of peace. Fayetteville is the place that can do it.
