Dear (Contact First Name),

This is not your mother's fairytale...

In 2012 Snow White is the hero of her own story, and the dudes play supporting roles. This movie is sure to open good conversation.

Guess we have a summer movie series happening. This one should be really fun. Please join us on Sunday.

Slum girl to world chess champ

KAMPALA, May 28 2013 (IPS) - Phiona Mutesi was a muddy, desperate nine-year-old foraging for food in Uganda's biggest slum, Katwe, when she discovered a chess programme. It was not the game that drew her. It was the free bowl of porridge.

"...We were sleeping on the streets. It was a hard time," says Mutesi, 17, whose father died of AIDS when she was three....

We watched one you'll want on your viewing list too. Lebanon has struggled through long civil wars. This brilliant story by Lebanese filmmaker Nadine Labaki explores several complex parts of the violence that engulfed Lebanon, and continues to explode in many part of the world.

Issues between women and men, Muslim and Christian, modern vs tradition, and the sad impacts of violence are all addressed in a sweet and tightly woven story filled with wonderful characters, humor, pathos and redemption. Watch it if you can.
